State tax cut delay likely, Smith warns

By RICH ADAMS

Hancock and Pearl River County State Senator Martin Smith, who this week was named chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, said Wednesday the legislature may decide this term to eliminate the second phase of a tax cut which was approved last year.

Smith, who retained his seat on the Senate Finance Committee, said a thorough examination of the state's financial situation will be conducted prior to a decision on the tax cut.

"The main thing on my mind now is a review of the state's financial situation to see if we can stay within the financial ability of the taxpayers," Smith said Wednesday.

"We will have to make a decision whether or not to postpone the second phase of a three-phase tax cut which we approved last year," he explained.

"Inflation within the state has risen so much that we find it necessary to make this investigation," the senator added.

He said a postponement of the second phase will result in certain exemptions not being initiated as stated in the bill passed last year.

The senior member of the Gulf Coast's delegation was named head of the newly consolidated Judiciary Committee Monday by Lt. Governor Brad Dye.

Smith is in his fourth term as senator and will head the panel which, until this year, was comprised of two separate committees.

Armed robbers hit Jr. Food

By ELLIS CUEVAS

Bay St. Louis police are investigating the Monday armed robbery of Jr. Food Store, US-90 and North Second Streets, according to Chief Douglas Williams.

"Suspects are believed to be white teenagers between 15-17 years old," according to police.

"We are questioning several youths, but we haven't made any arrests in the case and are still continuing the investigation," Williams said Wednesday.

The two appeared in the new store about 2 p.m. and were carrying a shotgun. One was described as being of a slender build, 5'4" tall, wearing dark shirt, and blue jeans with his face and head wrapped in an ace bandage, police say.

The other suspect listed by police was of medium build, about 5'5" tall, orange reddish hair, freckles with a sheer stocking over his head.

Bay patrolmen answering the call were Albert Biehl and Wilbert Dorsey. Bay investigator Jim Mallini is investigating the armed robbery.

Food stamp fraud draws indictment

By RICH ADAMS

A Bay St. Louis woman has been indicted by the Hancock County Grand Jury on charges of welfare fraud after she allegedly misused food stamps valued at $4,503, according to Hancock County Sheriff Ronald A. Peterson.

Portia Goldin, 37, 102 Watts St., Bay St. Louis, was arrested Monday by sheriff's deputies and lodged in Hancock County Jail, Peterson reported. She was released Monday afternoon on a $5,000 bond, the sheriff said.

The indictment alleges Goldin illegally converted $4,503 of State Welfare Department food stamps to her own use during a period from January, 1975 to November, 1978.

Goldin was allegedly not eligible for the food stamps, Peterson explained.

Arrested Saturday was Elvin Ray Cuevas on an indictment for allegedly uttering forgery. He was released from

Bay Council tables bids for study

BY ELLIS CUEVAS

The Bay St. Louis Council opened bids Tuesday night for annual requirements, painting water towers, generator for police department, newspapers and city depositories.

Six bids were received on the cleaning and painting of the elevated water tanks and construction of security fences.

The bids were taken under advisement for further study by Dr. Michael Smith, president of Advanced Designs Incorporated, (ADI), who is to make recommendations at a recessed meeting scheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 29 at 4:30 p.m.

Apparent lower bidder on the water tower work was Hercules Tank and Iron Works of Butler, Ala. with a base bid of $24,400 and alternate addititives of $7,500 for the first and $7,500 for the second alternate, or total bid of $39,400.

C-S and W Contractors, Inc. Jackson bid a total of $46,280; Utility Services, Madison N.C. bid $63,000; Bagwell Coatings of Baton Rouge, La. offered a total bid of $83,857 and Mississippi Industrial Contractor, Jackson bid $99,940 total bid.

A bid of $16,500 was submitted by The Larry Construction Co., Greenfield, Ind. but, Dr. Smith said it was for only painting the inside and outside of the towers and not submitted on the specifications of the advertised requirements. It was also to be taken under study with the other bids for the water tower improvement project.

Council received numerous bids for annual requirements, from the cost of clay gravel, asphalt, water meters, office supplies, etc. Those bids are to be studied by Mayor Larry Bennett and City Clerk Kelly McQueen.

There was some talk about the generator for the police department's funding monies having some problem which is to be looked into.

A bid of $5,490 was offered by Engine and Generator Service; Mengle Pump and Machine $6,276; Coast Machinery $5,549; Southern Equipment, $6,076 and $6,624 from Stardan Pumps and Repairs.

Bids for the City Depository submitted by Security Savings and Loan, Peoples Federal Savings and Loan and Gulf National Bank were taken under advisement.

Council accepted a bid from the Sea Coast Echo for publication of legal notices at six cents per word first insertion and three cents per word each subsequent insertion printed in six point type.

Cornelius Ladner, resident of DeMontzlin Avenue, appeared before the Council in a hearing on property clean-up of lots owned by him.

Mr. Ladner inquired as to who made the complaints and was told that Mr. Tiger Carver had done so via telephone.

A letter was presented to the Council by Mr. Ladner signed by Dr. Marion Wolfe, Sr. stating that the property owned by him was not a 'health hazard.' Ladner said Carver's complaint is 'a gripe and harassment.'

In describing the property he owns, Ladner mentioned to the Council that his lots do not adjourn Carver's property.

Council president Pete Benvenuti explained that any citizen has the right to complain before the city about property which is a health hazard and then a letter is written to the owner who is given ten days to reply.

After several minutes of discussion, a vote was taken to table the item for further study.

James J. Chiniche gave the Council an update on several projects he is working on including the drainage problems in Spanish Acres and the relocation of the sidewalk on Beach Boulevard.

Joe Brown III reported on the 1978 Small Cities Project and also on the 1979 Small Cities Project. The engineer said that the 1978 Small Cities project should be completed by mid-March.

Eddie Taylor, deacon chairman of the Morning Star Baptist Church, inquired as to why his Church has to pay for the blacktopping of the street which was done about 10 years ago.

It was explained that churches are exempt from taxes but that they do have to pay special assessments.

Mr. Taylor reported that the property on one street did not have sewer lines installed-Sycamore Street by the church.

Council advised that the church have its attorney to get together with board, attorney Joseph Gex.

Council recessed the meeting.

Farewell Mass slated to honor Statue

Doors will open at 7 p.m. Friday for a special 8 p.m. Catholic Diocese of Biloxi Mass of Thanksgiving and Farewell for the visiting International Pilgrim Virgin Statue at the Mississippi Coast Convention Center, Biloxi.

The Most Rev. Joseph L. Howze, bishop of Biloxi, will be principal celebrant of the Mass with diocesan priests as co-celebrants.

The statue will arrive at the convention center site at 7:30 p.m. from Our Lady of Fatima Church, Biloxi, with an honor guard formed by the Knights of Columbus and the Knights of Peter Claver.

The congregation will recite a scriptural rosary.

A special choir with representatives from all 42 parishes in the diocese will present a musical prelude under the direction of Phil Biebing.

There will be no reserved seating at the public Mass.

Also, no donations will be taken at any time during the service.

For the benefit of public viewing and picture-taking, the statue, which has drawn considerable interest from Catholics and non-Catholics alike during its visit in the diocese, will be placed in the foyer of the convention center following the recessional.

Gift bearers at the Mass will be children, senior citizens and representatives of various races.

Offertory gifts will be symbolic of the Blessed Mother and will include a rosary of fresh flowers, a parchment scroll handwritten by Coast Vietnamese Catholics, silk flags used during the statue's visit, a picture of the statue and the brown scapular, hailed by the Blessed Mother during her apparitions to the three children at Fatima in 1917 as a deep spiritual symbol for Catholics and non-Catholics worldwide.

The altar will be flanked by parish banners made to represent each of the 42 parishes especially for the farewell Mass.

U.S. bishops have dedicated the statue, which has been behind the Iron Curtain with its custodian Louis Kozmar, to promote family unity in 1980.

The Mass Friday will be dedicated to families of the diocese and Mary, who is venerated as the Queen of Families.

St

Bits 'n pieces

We are happy to hear that our lovely Hospitality Station off Interstate 10 will officially open this month.

The good word we have received from Mr. Louis Hatten, State Highway Inspector for the Southern District, is that they will clear the under brush from seven more acres.

This has been something many folks were concerned about because the trees are heavy and East bound traffic would not turn off the Interstate if they are unable to see the Hospitality Station.

Several acres of under brush have already been cleared in front of the structure and it helps considerably as we noted Saturday night.

It has been a long time in coming (or it seems to us) but I think every State can be envious of our modern Rest Area.

We feel the facility will be run in a professional manner since we have known many of the hosts for years and years.

We will be looking forward to seeing all of you on the official opening.

Well the Hawks proved we were right in our choice for the champions of the Bay High Invitational Basketball tournament.

We goofed on the girl's selection as we picked the Hawkettes but the Lady Pirates came through as champions.

We wish to thank each and every basketball player and their coaches for their performances during the tournament.

The fans also helped make the four day tourney a success.

Congratulations to the Hawks and Lady Pirates in the winning of the tourney.

We are glad to see interest in the formation of a new high school conference along the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

The Pascagoula River Conference is good, but just like any other conference, time causes changes in enrollment and teams become unbalanced because of changes in the number of students attending the various member schools.

Of course in the number of students attending the various member schools.

Of course, it would be of benefit to Hancock North Central since they are currently independents. Being in a conference would give the Hawks something to shoot for in sports.

We wish coach Irvin Favre success in his drive for this new conference.

Several local officials are in Jackson for the inauguration of our new governor William Winter.

Another big event in the capital city is the annual municipality meeting with Bay St. Louis and Waveland officials planning on attending.

We wish our new governor luck in the coming four years, and hope that we as Mississippians will be proud of Mr. William Winter when his term ends four years from now.

Congratulations are in order for State Senator Martin Smith on his appointment as chairman of the Judiciary Committee by Lt. Governor Brad Dye.

Since Senator Smith is the representative for Hancock and Pearl River Counties, we are very happy to see him chair such an important position in Jackson.

MISSISSIPPI ECONOMIC COUNCIL
THE STATE
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

OVERLOOKING REORGANIZATION

The 1980 Legislature again looking for ways to fund a permanent highway construction program, is, perhaps, overlooking one method of getting more for the tax dollar - revision of parts of our road system.

At present, construction and maintenance of rural and county roads in the state cost Mississippi taxpayers about $175 million per year according to State Highway Department figures. About $39 million of that total is in the form of payments for the State Aid Program. The three sources of funds for other county roads are the motor fuel excise tax, road and bridge privilege taxes, and local property taxes which differ from county to county because of the method of assessing property for ad valorem tax purposes.

A close look at county government road operations reveals that Mississippi counties - with some exceptions - split the management of the road programs five ways, resulting in more than 400 independent beat departments. Each supervisor, generally, has his own labor force, his own equipment, his own budget, and his own method of building and maintaining county roads.

This method of operation was described in studies commissioned by or completed by the Legislature in 1949, 1961, 1970, 1971, and 1972 as an inefficient and unproductive expenditure of tax dollars. The studies reported that "millions of dollars" were lost due to this inefficient system.

And, as Mississippi Economic Council study has revealed that among the states an average of 17.5 percent of all highway user taxes was used for county road purposes. In Mississippi, 35 percent of these revenues was used for county road purposes - almost twice the national average.

MEC believes that mandatory management of county roads under a unit system would mean more efficient use of tax dollars and improved county road programs. And, MEC urges the Legislature to look into consolidation of county road programs which would provide Mississippians a more efficient return on their tax dollar. Miss. Economic Council.

LAFITTE DRIVE PAVING—A work crew on Waveland's Lafitte Drive stands next to a street sweeping machine. The crew has been cleaning the street in an effort to prepare and dry the surface for paving. Last week Waveland's board of aldermen approved a paving contract change order with Pearl River Paving Co. of Picayune to include Lafitte Drive in an existing contract for paving several city streets. Waveland Mayor John Longo hopes to have the street repaved before the Feb. 10 Nerdies' parade which uses Lafitte as a parade route.

Sore Throat Nature's Warning of Illness

Does your throat hurt?

If so, you may console yourself with the knowledge that you have plenty of company.

Sore throat is one of the more common physical discomforts that plague most of us from time to time.

Sore throat is nature's warning system that something in your body is out of order, says the American Medical Association.

Often a sore throat accompanies a common cold, and the soreness passes in a few days. But, sore throat also can be the symptom of any of a wide range of diseases, from diphtheria to leukemia, that require your physician's skill, not your guessing, to diagnose.

Sometimes tonsils and adenoids are involved in causing a sore throat, and when these organs repeatedly cause trouble they frequently are removed.

Tonsil-adenoid removals account for half of all surgery performed on children. Sometimes the removal helps prevent sore throat, sometimes it doesn't.

Allergies can cause sore throats. Cold, dry winter air can trigger it. So can extreme thirst, excessive smoking or mouth breathing. Anything that dries out the throat and cuts off secretions that normally wash dust away.

Virus infections of many types also are a cause of sore throat, and everyone who has had flu knows that this particular virus disease often causes the throat to hurt.

"Strep throat" is a serious infection that occasionally leads to rheumatic fever and possible heart damage. It can be knocked out with penicillin, if it is diagnosed in time.

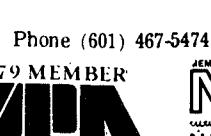

The crucial diagnostic test in sore throat is the swab test, through which the germs causing the trouble can be identified.

There is little or nothing you can do to cure a sore throat at home. There are medications which bring temporary easing of the discomfort. Most sore throats will clear up in a few days without treatment. If the sore throat persists, the cure must be launched by your physician.

Sills emphasizes position on Randolph appointment

Jan. 23, 1980
Editor
Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Editor:

I would like to make it perfectly clear to the people of Hancock County and the Hancock County School Board that I was violently opposed to Terrell Randolph being appointed as 16th Section land consultant for the district.

I will not recommend Terrell Randolph as consultant or to any other position with the school board.

I feel that the people of Hancock County have spoken and have elected me superintendent of education and Mr. Randolph has to realize that he has lost the election; he has to let go and he should collect his belongings and go elsewhere.

I can see no good coming from this position that Terrell Randolph has been appointed to.

Therefore, I want to re-state that I did not recommend Terrell Randolph for the 16th Section land consultant position and will not recommend him for any other position with the Hancock County School District.

Thank you for giving me this opportunity to make this point clear to the people of Hancock County and also your continued interest in education.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

In regard to the many recent letters from the prisoners at the Hancock Hilton pertaining to the food conditions here at the County jail, we are very happy to say past conditions have been improved considerably since the take over of the catering service by Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Ladner.

The meals now served are very nutritious and they also taste good.

Mrs. Ladner comes in at 7 a.m. and prepares the meals and leaves at 3:30 p.m.

Personally we feel this woman is doing one fine job and deserves a lot of credit.

Some of us here at the jail have been here in the past and remember the Hunger Strike and all the letters that have been written to the newspapers, TV stations and various officials throughout the State.

Now, finally, after all we here have been through, our complaints have been heard and we would like to thank all of the people who showed their concern.

Most of all, we want to thank Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Ladner and the Lord.

Carter foreign policy described as 'drift, hesitation, idle talk'

The Editor
The Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Sir:

President Carter said after the Soviet Union's invasion of Afghanistan that he had learned more of Soviet intentions in the previous few weeks, than he had in the two and one-half years he had been in office. What naivete!

I wonder if his closest national security adviser, Z. Brezezinski, has been equally naive.

Let's look at the record: Cuba, Grenada, Angola, Ethiopia, South Yemen, North and South Viet-Nam, Cambodia—all fallen to Soviet "good"

With the Russians now only approximately 300 miles from the Arabian Sea and within easy striking distance of the Persian Gulf fields, poised with many divisions on both the Pakistani and Iranian borders, no doubt with orders to attack both countries' ethnic Baluchistan provinces, Carter now confesses this country's impotency and in effect a foreign policy of drift, hesitation, delay, diplomacy and idle talk.

As for the hostages, that's another sad and tragic consequence.

State employee association pleads for bill veto support

Editor
Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis, Ms.

Gulf Coast Chapter
State Employees
Association of Mississippi
4507 Chamberlain Avenue
Gulfport, Ms.

Dear Editor:

As President of the Gulf Coast Chapter of the State Employees Association of Mississippi, I am writing to appeal to the legislators of Harrison County and the Gulf Coast to over-ride Governor Finch's veto of the State Personnel System Bill, H.B. 528 as passed by the 1979 Legislature.

This is a good and comprehensive piece of legislation which would provide for one State Personnel System based on merit principles and covering all state employees. Such a system has been long needed in state government.

Some of the main features of this bill are: (1) Provides for a single personnel system (rather than our present dual system of the Classification Commission and Merit Council); (2) Sets up a five-member personnel board including a state employee, and not prohibiting but not specifying that legislators must serve on this board; (3) Creates an advisory council consisting of state personnel directors of five major state agencies; (4) Promotes job security; and (5) Will not change anniversary dates on promotion.

This present personnel system for state employees covers none of the above and is a detriment to maintaining good employees for the State of Mississippi.

It was recently brought to my attention that the State Budget Commission has voted to recommend to the 1980 Legislature a total of a 7 percent increase in salary (5 percent merit and 2 percent cost of living) for state employees, crying once again "No money."

This is more than a disgrace; it is an insult to all state employees!

The teachers have been successful each year in securing decent salary increases, but of course they are given a paid vacation to go to Jackson and lobby whereas state employees are not.

How can good, competent state employees be expected to continue working for the State of Mississippi when they are given cost of living pay increases at 2 percent and the annual cost of living rises an insurmountable amount?

I am urging all state employees to personally contact each of their legislators in an effort to have the veto of H.B. 528 over-ridden and to receive a fair and decent cost of living raise this year.

Also, I appeal to the legislators of Harrison County and the Gulf Coast to give your special attention to these requests.

Sincerely,
(Mrs.) Edith Rutherford

Coast Chronicle halts publication

BY EDGAR PEREZ
Hancock County's four-year-old, bi-weekly newspaper The Coast Chronicle has ceased publication following issuance of its last edition Dec. 19.

"We have decided to cease publication of The Coast Chronicle at this time in order to concentrate our efforts on servicing customers of the commercial printing phase of Perkins and Associates' operations," Chronicle publisher Mary Perkins said Wednesday.

"We would like to thank the many people and advertisers who supported the Chronicle so faithfully during the four years of our publication," Perkins stated.

A native and lifelong resident of Bay St. Louis, Perkins will continue as head of Perkins and Associates, Inc. She is currently serving her third term as treasurer of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce.

Prior to founding the Chronicle in 1975, Perkins had been a member of the Sea Coast Echo staff for some 4.5 years.

"The workload, bill-wise, will be as great as any committee in the Senate," Smith continued.

"It is going to take a great deal of teamwork," he added.

Neither Carroll Ingram of Hattiesburg nor Herman DeCell of Yazoo City, chairmen of the old two-panel Judiciary Committee, returned to the senate this year.

Smith had been a member of Ingram's Judiciary Panel during a previous session while at the same time chairing the Senate Elections Committee.

Bill Harpole of Starkville succeeds

Smith as Elections Committee chairman.

Smith will retain his position on the Finance Committee, in addition to being named a member of the Election; Business and Financial Institutions; Insurance; Conservation; and Public Utilities Committees.

He is also appointed as the Fifth Congressional District's senatorial representative on the Legislative Audit Committee.

The senator said he does not have any plans to introduce specific bills to the legislature at this time, but added "As the session develops and problems become apparent, I will follow through with legislation."

As a member of the Fifth Congressional District's Personal

Evaluation and Expenditure Review (PEER) Auditing Committee, Smith said he and that panel will act as "watchdogs" expenditures by legislators.

He said the Conservation Committee, which was formerly three independent panels, will deal with problems of the seafood industry.

"The new Conservation Committee is a combination of the Game and Fish Committee, the Marine Conservation Committee, and the Water and Air Conservation Committee," Smith said.

"We will deal with marine conservation. I have been in contact with Dr. Richard Leard of the Bureau of Marine Resources to discuss the seafood industry," Smith said Wednesday.

Action Agency.....

"We have exhausted the grant and have not been notified of anymore funds forthcoming," Piernas said.

"In order to process the applications we have left we would need $17,000 more," Piernas added.

Cloris Williams, acting director of the Governor's Office of Human Resources Tuesday said, "Mississippi was given $9.60 for each low income family ($2.4 million) so, there's no way we could have enough money for everybody."

"The governor set the eligibility criteria and the maximum amount a family may receive is $300," Piernas stated.

"There is no hope for additional funds and the only way Mississippi would get additional funds this year would be by an act of Congress for an emergency or supplemental allocation. Even if Congress would act this year we probably would not receive any funds until August, at the earliest," Williams explained.

"We do not have any funds in house so we have to send all applications to the governor's office for final approval and payment. However, we are giving priority to senior citizens and those on supplemental social security (SSI)," Williams said.

"Anyone who applied for ECAP funds and has not yet received notification that the bill will be paid will not receive assistance," Piernas stated.

Action Agency seeks citizen board members

The Hancock County office of Gulf Coast Community Action Agency is urging interested Hancock citizens and officials of civic groups to attend a special meeting Wednesday, Jan. 30 at 7 p.m. in the Courthouse to elect agency directors.

The agency is seeking two representatives from the county's poverty sector and one representative from a community civic organization to serve on its board of directors, according to Mrs. Athalia Piernas, agency coordinator in Hancock County.

The representatives from the poverty sector will be elected by democratic process at the meeting, she explained.

Organizations are being asked to submit in writing to the CAA office at 300 Third St., Bay St. Louis, their desire to be represented on the board, Mrs. Piernas continued.

"We are seeking individuals who recognize the processes and services available to the poor and those who have the ability to interchange the activities of CAA with the political structure in place in Hancock County," Mrs. Piernas proclaimed.

For information, call 467-3198, Mrs. Piernas said.

protective sand fill against the face of the seawall, with the sand to be obtained by dredging from borrow areas in Mississippi Sound. The plaintiffs seek damages from the U.S. alleging negligence in the creation of the borrow areas.

The U.S. contends the county was negligent in failing to take proper measures to protect the public and failing to maintain proper warning signs.

Six of the drownings occurred June 4, 1977, when a group of Louisiana people were attending a church outing at the Gulfside Methodist Assembly.

The seventh drowning occurred June 13, 1978, under similar circumstances.

Freddie Harris Brown, 17, Chavela Consuela Price, 15, June Mills Butler, 16, Randall Todd Short, 15, and Rose Marie Myles, 15, were pronounced dead by accidental drowning by Coroner Carl Banderet. Francisco Joseph Varrett, 22, is the drowning victim of the following summer in 1978. Plaintiffs in each case are asking $1 million in damages.

County forester offers pruning tips

Trees are usually pruned during winter months. Do your lawn trees need this kind of care, asks Hancock County Forester Rand Reidrich.

When pruning limbs from the main trunk, the final cut should be flush with the main trunk leaving no stub. An asphalt base paint (roofing cement) should be applied on the exposed wood, Reidrich explains.

This paint should not be applied over the bark area since the healing tissue grows from the area between the wood and bark. If the wound is not painted, rot and other diseases have an open-door invitation, he added.

Topping and "dehorning" trees is usually more detrimental than beneficial.

These wounds are slow to callus over and the asphalt base paint usually weathers off or sloughs off before complete healing. Decay and insect problems usually arise from this type treatment of trees, the Forester said.

Call your Mississippi Forestry Commission Area Forester for information concerning pruning and other tree care advice.

Highway department to clear seven acres of brush fronting I-10 Center

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.
After numerous requests by local officials and concerned citizens the State Highway Department will clear some seven acres of underbrush fronting the new Hancock Welcome Center located at the I-10 and Hwy. 607 interchange.

"We will clear about seven acres of underbrush to I-10 so motorists in the eastbound lane will be able to easily see the welcome center," stated Louis Hatten, state highway inspector for southern district.

"We've already cleared about three acres of underbrush directly in front of the center but, with this additional clearing you'll be able to view the building with enough time to exit off of the highway," Hatten explained.

When the underbrush is cleared I-10 motorists will have a breathtaking view of Mississippi's newest welcome center located near the western border of Hancock County and southwestern border of the state.

Hatten said the $900,000 brick two-story plantation style structure, built by Roy Anderson Jr. Construction Co. of Gulfport, was under construction about 18 months and houses $30,000 in Mississippi antiques.

Upon entering the new center attention is immediately drawn to an intricately constructed wooden spiral staircase which gracefully winds its way to a second floor conference area and storage rooms.

The laminated stairwell, made in Wisconsin, is constructed of oak and cost about $20,000," Hatten said.

"The staircase is perfectly balanced and in fact, before the staircase was fastened to the building, it stood freely without any support whatsoever," Hatten added.

Hatten proudly pointed out how the staircase was designed to fit perfectly in place and closely follows a semicircular interior wall eight and a half inches without variation.

"It fit like a glove," Hatten said.

The first floor has three spacious display rooms with each containing a four foot diameter $18,000 polished brass chandelier and the rooms have windows fashioned after locally popular French style doors.

Most of the interior brick walls are about a foot thick and entrances to display rooms are framed by massive brick archways.

When asked how the state was able build a structure within the National Space Technology Laboratories (NSTL) buffer zone area Haddock said, "This building is built so virtually nothing will bother it. The concrete slab has three foot deep footing and three foot deep cross footings all tied in with heavy steel reinforcement rods."

"The only problem is that we can't have overnight parking because we're in this NSTL easement area," Hadden stated.

The middle of the welcome center has a combined reception and refreshment area where free coffee, soft drinks, information and brochures will be offered to visitors.

The building also houses restrooms which are accessible to the handicapped with ramps, handrails and specially designed restroom facilities.

Some 35 picnic areas surround the welcome center building which also have ramped walkways for the handicapped.

"We now have a two year job of landscaping the grounds around the building. When completed, the building will be surrounded by several 40 foot flower beds," Hatten said.

Hatten explains certain shrubs and flowers require planting during certain seasons which is the primary reason for the two year project.

Welcome Center Manager Lillian Dillard says the formal opening of the welcome center is slated for sometime at the end of this month.

Right now Dillard and her staff are busily working to arrange rooms full of Mississippi antiques.

SOUTHERN STYLE—Louis Hatten, state highway inspector for the southern district, stands in front of the new Hancock Welcome Center at the I-10 and Hwy. 607 interchange. Hatten said a two year planting project will surround the $900,000 building with flowers and shrubs.

BRASS CHANDELIER—One of three polished brass chandeliers found in the Hancock Welcome Center's display rooms. Each chandelier measures approximately four feet in diameter and cost about $18,000 a piece.

UNUSUAL ARRANGEMENT—Under the glass dome is an arrangement of sea shells and ceramic roses. Debbie Woodcock, assistant manager of the Hancock Welcome Center studies the arrangement which is one of several Mississippi products on display at the tourist facility.

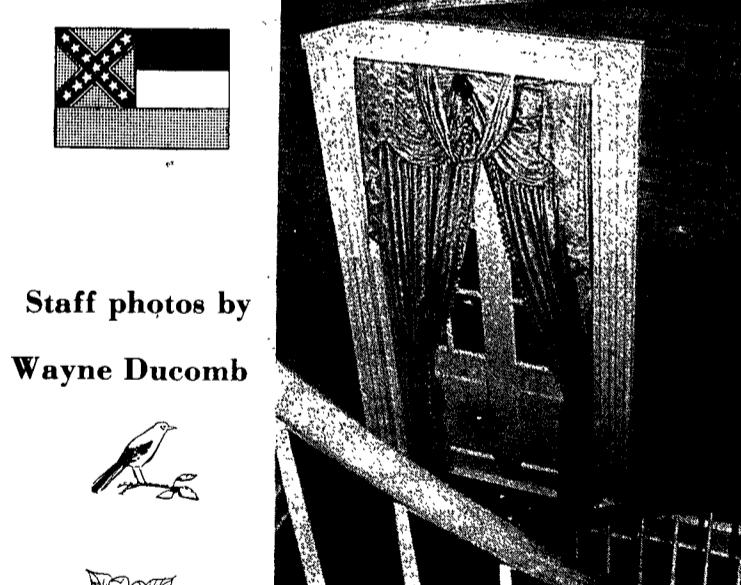

ANTIQUE FAN—Debbie Woodcock, assistant manager of the Hancock Welcome Center, holds a framed hand painted antique silk fan. The fan is one of several antiques found at the new facility. There will be approximately $30,000 in antiques displayed in the building.

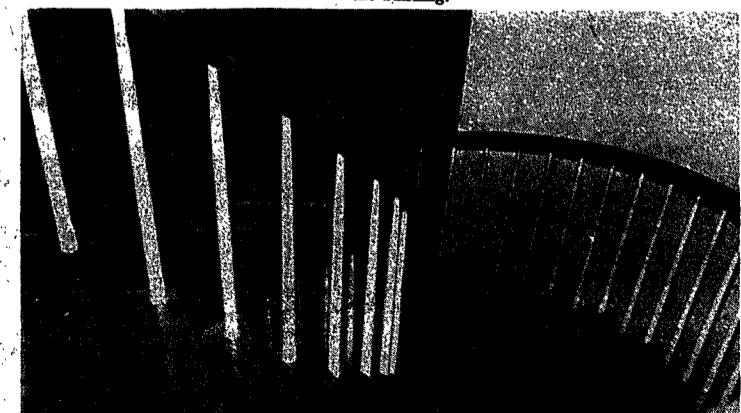

STATE SEAL—Louis Hatten, state highway inspector for the Southern District, points out the large state seal displayed above the fireplace in the Hancock Welcome Center. Hatten said construction cost for the new facility was some $900,000.

INDIAN ARTIFACTS—Hancock Welcome Center's Receptionists' Patty Derry, left, and Melanie Mitchell show some of the Noble Farms Indian Village artifacts displayed in the new I-10 visitor's facility. There will also be some $30,000 in antiques displayed inside the building.

Sisters of St. Joseph mark 125 years in US

ST. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY This aerial view of the St. Joseph's Academy was taken in the early 1900's. The school's pier heads to the left corner of the school building with gym in background (now part of Our Lady's Academy). Our Lady of the Gulf Church is left of the pier; Planchett's book store and St. Stanislaus College are to the far left. The Sisters of St. Joseph of Medaille of the New Orleans Province celebrated 125 years in the United States this month.

The Sisters arrived in Bay St. Louis on Jan. 6, 1855 when three sisters moved here from New Orleans where they first landed on Dec. 30, 1854.

They established a school four miles away in Waveland and by the end of the year had a small school also in the Bay.

In 1856 three more Sisters arrived in Bay St. Louis and a girl's boarding school opened.

The Sisters of St. Joseph operated in Bay St. Louis until 1967. In 1960 the elementary school was dropped with the opening of Our Lady of the Gulf school.

Many residents of the area are graduates of St. Joseph's Academy with some joining the order as nuns.

On Nov. 30, 1877, the Sisters of St. Joseph of Bourg, France severed ties with Europe and launched out on their own as an American congregation.

They adopted the name of Sisters of St. Joseph of Medaille (Father John Peter Medaille, a French Jesuit, was the founder of the Sisters of St. Joseph in 1650).

In the early 1900's the Sisters of St. Joseph were involved in the establishment of parochial schools.

In 1959, nine Sisters of St. Joseph began the operation of Terrebonne Hospital.

The 1960's saw a number of the sisters venturing into new ministries; campus ministry, foreign missions, work among juveniles, among the deaf, in offices, in computer programming and communications.

By 1978, some of the sisters in the field of health care began planning for ministry of home health services.

Supervisors transfer funds to Youth Court

BY WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

In two related unanimous decisions Tuesday, the Hancock County Board of Supervisors approved combining the County Youth Court's administrator and referee positions and transferred $10,000 from the severance tax fund to the youth court fund.

Last week Charles Carter, ex-Youth Court administrator, was indicted by the Grand Jury on charges of embezzling $3,859 from Youth Court funds.

Mike Haas, Youth Court referee, has now also assumed the duties of administrator. Haas appeared at the supervisor's recess meeting in support of the two actions regarding the Youth Court.

"I have personally assumed the administration of the court and I'd like to report that all funds are under my personal supervision," Haas stated.

"However, the youth court is now in a deficit position due to a drastic drop in revenues from the youth services tax," Haas said.

"We do not have funds to consider a separate administrator position and I ask that the administrator be combined with the referee position," Haas explained.

"We do have to have $10,000 from a fund loan to keep the court going," Haas said.

Board Attorney Walter Gex asked, "Does that mean the loan will be paid back?"

"I'm not saying that," Haas replied. "The Youth Court will be $4,000 overdrawn if something isn't done," said Chancery Clerk Mike Necaise.

Supervisor James Travirca suggested, "We should transfer $10,000 from the severance tax fund to the youth court."

"Unless you have a means to pay a loan back it wouldn't be legal to transfer it," Gex said.

"Under special legislation the board can allocate from any available funds," Haas replied.

The goal is for it (the Youth Court) to be self sustaining," Gex said.

"I don't think the youth court will ever be on a self sustaining basis," Haas said.

We have actually overdrawn. We've got a $3,000 loan and $4,000 in bills to pay so I've spent $7,000 already," Haas explained.

"Will $10,000 be enough," Supervisor Roger Dale Ladner asked?

"We're looking for $6,900 in Law Enforcement Assistance Administration funds. We have about three more months on this grant and we might be able to recoup some of the money," Haas replied.

New house bill proposes Gulf Coast degrees

A bill which will allow students at all branches of the University of Southern Mississippi, including Long Beach's Gulf Park Campus to enroll as full time day or night students has been introduced to the House of Representatives by 12 Coast legislators.

Rep. Gerald Blessey of Biloxi, one of the sponsors, said the bill would permit students at all branches of USM, including Long Beach, the Jackson County campus of the Mississippi Gulf Coast Junior College and Keesler Air Force Base to register for as many hours in a quarter as a student is allowed at the main campus in Hattiesburg.

"This bill is the first step toward a full university opportunity on the Coast," Blessey said. "If this bill becomes law then we shall learn of the real demand for credit hours at the Gulf Park Branch Centers. Even with part-time hours, in the past five years credit hours at Gulf Park have increased 37.5 percent. I believe we will discover that there are many more students who would prefer to complete their degrees here at home rather than spending time and travel expenses going to South Alabama, Hattiesburg or New Orleans for their degrees."

The bill will come up for a hearing in the Universities and Colleges Committee "in the near future," Blessey said, "and we hope that many Coast citizens will be able to attend and support this proposal."

"The Coast delegation is unified in their support of this measure, and we are seeking allies in other areas of the state," Blessey said.

Officials seek restricting deer hunting with dogs

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors decided in a three-two vote to call for restricting deer hunting with dogs to the National Space Technology Laboratories buffer zone area.

"The Hancock County Rod and Gun club recently voted to abolish county dog hunting for deer," Supervisor James Travirca said.

Travirca offered a motion recommending to state officials the use of dogs when hunting deer be banned throughout the county.

Travirca said the problem is that hunters who use dogs often disregard signs and abuse posted property.

But his motion died for lack of a second as Supervisor Bert Courregé suggested instead a certain area be set aside for the use of dogs.

Travirca offered another motion that hunting with dogs be allowed only in the NSTL buffer zone.

This motion passed with Travirca, Courregé and Sam Pernicaro voting in favor of it with "Dolph" Kellar and Roger Dale Ladner opposing.

Kellar said he couldn't go along with the move because too many hunters spend a lot of time and money in keeping and training dogs for hunting.

"I still like to hunt," Courregé said, "and there's nothing worse than being on a stand and a bunch of dogs come running through," Courregé said.

But Courregé said he could not vote in favor of a move for prohibiting the use of dogs throughout the county.

Pernicaro noted that state Rep. J.P. Compreta of Bay St. Louis intends to introduce legislation setting aside certain areas of Hancock for the use of deer-hunting dogs.

Bay students honored

Edwin Goodwin and Nancy J. Finerty of Bay St. Louis have been named to The University of Mississippi Chancellor's Honor Roll for the fall semester.

A grade-point average between 3.75 and 4.0 is required for full-time students carrying at least 14 semester hours for listing on the Chancellor's Honor Roll.

MISSISSIPPI WEEKLY WEATHER REPORT

Mid-January to mid-February temperatures will average below normal and rainfall will total above the median in Mississippi, according to the National Weather Service Outlook distributed by the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service.

This year's weather after mid-January will be colder than that experienced so far this winter, say agrometeorologists at the Environmental Studies Service Center at Stoneville who prepare the forecasts.

Precipitation will total more than five inches in many years.

Poultrymen and stockmen should be alert for rapidly falling temperatures from frontal passages, especially in late January and February.

Extra fuel may be needed to help control moisture levels in poultry houses.

Hawks, Lady Pirates win Bay tourney

By RICH ADAMS
Sports Editor

The Hancock North Central Hawks and the Pass Christian Lady Pirates came out as the victors in the Bay High Invitational Basketball Tournament here Saturday, defeating East Central and The HNC Hawkettes respectively to take the crowns.

Janet Guillotte netted 11 points for the Lady Pirates as they dominated the game utilizing the fast break in key situations to defeat the Hawkettes.

Tammy and Missy Dedeaux added 10 points a piece to add to the 50-41 victory over the HNC five.

High scorer for the Hawkettes was Joy Nell Lee, who put 23 points through the hoop to make the only double-figure scoring effort for the Hawkettes.

The Hancock North Central Hawks defeated a tough East Central squad to take the crown in the boys division by a 69-51 margin.

The Hornets were agile and aggressive the night before as they defeated St. Stanislaus, but could not put together the combinations needed to break the Hawk's determination and abilities.

The Hawks jumped to a 17-6 lead in the first period, Moses Hill and Steve Nunn contributing to that lead by collecting numerous rebounds from the Hornet's end of the court.

Hill scored 25 points in the winning effort, followed by Byron Ladner's 11.

Assisting in the rebound department for the Hancock crew were Barry Arcement and Zachary Ladner.

Hancock boxer debuts with knockout bout

Archie Thomas of the Hancock Boxing Club last week stopped Bay-Kiln-

-Waveland Pugilist Dave Stringer with a knockout with 1:58 remaining in the opening round.

"Archie is a newcomer to amateur boxing and this was his first fight, but it will not be his last," said Head Coach Harvey Mitchell.

"He showed some very promising abilities of a great amateur future champ," Mitchell added.

In other action, Charlie Mitchell of the Hancock Club put on an exhibition match against Tracy Ainsworth of the Bay-Kiln-Waveland Club.

"These two young men are the future of a fine Southern Amateur Athletic Union as Charlie is only eight," Mitchell noted.

Also, Robert Mitchell lost to Charles Huddleson in a decision.

"It was a very close match, but Robert came up short on points in the end," Mitchell said.

Tim Pearsley also lost his first fight to Brian Chassion of Marero.

"Chassion was too strong for Tim and we stopped the fight after the first round. Tim is not discouraged, and said he will be back next week to fight," the coach explained.

Going but not meeting a match were Joe Pavolini, James Bourgious, Jeff Hicks, and Sam Schoonmaker.

"I would like to thank Charles (Rabbit) Farve for Christmas, who recently won a championship at the Jackson County Invitational, will be fighting at the Bay St. Louis Disabled American Veteran's Hall on Main Street March 8.

Stanley (Snakes) Christmas defeated George Bennett of the Gulfport Boxing Club in a unanimous decision following three two-minute rounds.

Both boxers weigh 147 pounds, but Head Coach John Whisenhunt said his boxer dominated the ring throughout the battle.

"Stanley used a lot of rope-a-dope and then beat Bennett to the punch. Stanley is the best counter-puncher around today. He can roll, bob, slide, and block punches while fighting in the corner," Whisenhunt said.

"Stanley's left hook off his right jab followed by a right cross almost put Bennett down in the first round. Stanley looks and fights much like Muhammad Ali," he added.

"Bennett is a very experienced boxer, but Stanley kept control of the fight with a lateral movement and straight punches. There was no talk of a rematch from Gulfport's corner. Stanley has won a trophy every time he has stepped into a ring," the Coach added.

Tracy Ainsworth of Kiln, an eight-year-old, made his exhibition debut against Charlie Mitchell of the Hancock Boxing Club.

A loss was suffered by Dave Stringer, who was knocked out in the first round against Hancock Boxing Club's Archie Thomas.

The BKW club will host a bout at Annunciation School Gymnasium Feb. 9 at 7 p.m., with Todd Rooks as the main event.

The main trophy event is donated by James A. Rester and the Farm Bureau Insurance Company of Kiln.

Hancock County Sheriff Ronnie Peterson will award the trophy. Peterson is a former amateur boxer.

The breathtaking luge event is expected to gain popularity with American enthusiasts following the Lake Placid events. The newly built Mt. Van Hoevenberg bahn is the only official luge run in the Western Hemisphere, so this sport has yet to receive wide recognition in the United States. A luge has no mechanical brakes or steering. Fearless athletes run a serpentine course at speeds surpassing 70 miles per hour with merely a steering strap to hold them to the sled. The slightest turn of the head can cause these highly flexible sleds to change direction.

Crime Commission sets membership meet

The annual General Membership Meeting of the Mississippi Coast Crime Commission will be held at the Gulfport Area Chamber of Commerce today at 4 p.m.

Seven new directors will be elected at this meeting, and the Board of Directors will then elect officers for the coming year.

Nominees as directors include business leaders from Pascagoula, Long Beach, Pass Christian, Bay St. Louis, and Gulfport, who will join fourteen other prominent citizens to complete the Board of Directors.

In addition to the election, reports on work for the past year, and plans for projects for the coming year will be reviewed.

Colorful Images Of Olympic Games

Bright spots attracting the attention of visitors at the new Olympic Sports Center skating rink in Lake Placid, N.Y., are colorful murals by American artist Don Nice. The two 7-foot by 30-foot canvases high on the upper level lobby walls depict in glowing colors the coveted gold medal plus equipment used for the games. Canvases are mounted on plywood glued to wood supports attached to the cinder-block wall. High strength neoprene adhesive holding the support system in place is tough, reliable and weather-resistant, so the cold humid atmosphere of the rink poses no problems.
